Player Profile

Bronson is a 6'7", 235-pound multi-sport athlete currently playing EDGE while also contributing on offense. A former varsity quarterback and three-year team captain, he brings length, movement skills, football IQ and experience at multiple positions. His background in football, basketball and track has helped develop the athleticism and versatility he now brings to the defensive side of the ball.

"I think No. 7 (Gulley) is their best athlete... He might have found his niche as an edge guy in college."
— Opposing coach, following Monterey vs. Christopher
